

Live Lesson: Preventing extinction with Chester Zoo

During our 'Live Lesson: Preventing extinction with Chester Zoo' we have moments to interact. Use this worksheet to answer the questions as you watch along.

Big question

What factors might lead a species to become critically endangered or even extinct?

Quiz round 1 – True or False

1. 'Vulnerable' means that a species is at extreme risk of becoming extinct very soon.

True False

2. Wildlife corridors help connect habitats to each other.

True False

3. Grey squirrels were originally from North America.

True False

4. Invasive species contributed to the extinction of the Dodo.

True False

Quiz round 2 – Multiple choice

1. Why are elephants important to their ecosystem?

- a. They clear paths in the forest that other animals use.
- b. They spread seeds though their poo.
- c. They are a part of the food chain.
- d. All of the above.

2. What is habitat loss?

- a. When animals move to a new place for fun.
- b. When an animal's home is destroyed or changed.
- c. When animals decide to live underwater instead of on land.
- d. When plants grow too quickly in a forest.

3. The Deserta snails were thought to be extinct because of...

- a. Habitat loss.
- b. The illegal wildlife trade.
- c. A deadly disease.
- d. A meteor.

4. Which continents do we find elephants in?

- a. Europe and Antarctica.
- b. Africa and Asia.
- c. South America and Australia.
- d. North America and Europe.

What question would you like to ask Chester Zoo?